

Marc Albasser

Experience

Marc joined the team in 2004, having previously worked for one of the major IT solutions French companies, and having an educational background in multimedia and copyright law.

At Noble & Scheidecker, Marc is mainly involved in international corporate restructuring transactions. He enjoys being able to evolve in an international and dynamic environment, allowing him to get in contact with different law systems. He finds rewarding to develop his communication skills with people having diverse business and cultural approaches.

He has notably participated to the Luxembourg implementation of several American group companies' reorganization projects.

Education

Postgraduate degree in multimedia and information systems law (DESS), University of Strasbourg III (France), 2004

Law degree, University of Strasbourg III (France), 2002

Bar Admission

Member of the Luxembourg Bar, 2007

Hobbies

Marc is passionate about rock music. He enjoys listening to new groups and songwriters. He also plays the guitar with a band that has performed in several concerts in France.

Marc is also interested in fine arts, in particular modern and contemporary paintings.

albasser@mnks.com

+352 26 48 42 35 48

Expertise

Corporate Structuring

Languages

French
English