

Anne Bonville

Experience

In the past, Anne has chosen to work in different activity sectors to develop her professional skills: she acquired a client-oriented approach by assuming a commercial position during 2 years in a products and cleanliness equipments' company; she then developed during 1 year an experimental project in the field of the recovering of outstanding payments for a transportation company; and she worked for 5 years as commercial and administrative assistant in the field of relocation and catering.

Having a "multiple-tasks" background, she joined Noble & Scheidecker that offered her the possibility of using her different skills by participating to different workgroups. She deals with risk management and recruitment processes within the firm.

Education

BTS Commercial Actions (France), 1999

DEUG Modern Literature (France), 1997

Hobbies

Anne enjoys travelling, discovering different cultures. She was, for instance, French assistant in Turkey for a month.

Anne has a pronounced taste for the cooking and testing new flavours.

She also likes everything related to the dance, music and books.
