

Michelle Daly

Experience

Michelle is Irish, she joined the MNKS team, having just completed her university education in May 2007, where she specialised in Corporate Law.

At MNKS, Michelle prepares legal documentation relating to corporate financing transactions, in particular relating to restructuring projects, migration of companies, etc.

She also acts as a point of reference on matters relating to Irish and UK law.

Michelle loves being part of such a young and energetic team and is really enjoying learning about the legal and business worlds. She is enjoying the challenge that being part of such a busy law firm presents. She is looking forward to developing her legal skills, and benefiting from the in depth experience of her colleagues.

Education

Post-graduate degree (bachelor) of Laws (Hons), National University of Ireland, (Galway, Ireland), 2007

Degree in Corporate Law (Hons), National University of Ireland, (Galway, Ireland), 2006

Hobbies

Michelle loves more than anything to spend time with her family and friends, both at home in Ireland and in Luxembourg.

She also enjoys traveling and considers the months she spent in Canada as an unforgettable experience. She is really excited by the opportunity that living in Luxembourg presents to travel further in Europe.

Music, cinema and reading are other hobbies, as well as horse riding, swimming, walking and the occasional shopping spree...
