

Jean-François Findling

Experience

Jean-François is a Partner of MNKS. He represents both international and Luxembourg clients in a wide range of corporate transactions including Mergers and Acquisitions, IPOs, Private Equity and Corporate Structuring.

He has developed significant expertise in the structuring of acquisitions, reorganisations or joints-ventures through his involvement in various transactions of numerous US listed companies' and Private Equity Funds.

Jean-François is both pragmatic and technically astute in his approach: Jean-François enjoys dealing with complex legal issues and turning them into workable and clear solutions for his clients.

He assumes various responsibilities in the management of the firm, including risk management, client relationship management and recruitment.

Before joining Noble & Scheidecker in 2001, Jean-François practiced corporate law and tax law in France.

Recent examples of deals he has advised on include:

- The structuring of the exit by an IPO through dedicated Luxembourg financing and holding vehicles of one of the largest US venture capital funds.
- The acquisitions of German Real Estate through Luxembourg holdings and financial instruments.
- The coordination with numerous European law firms in the implementation of corporate and contractual steps within the framework of the European reorganisation of one of the largest US venture capital funds.

Jean-François is highly recommended by the European Legal Experts.

Education

Postgraduate diploma in business law (DJCE/DESS), University of Strasbourg (France), 1994

Bar Admission

Member of the Luxembourg Bar, 2003 and of the Strasbourg Bar (France), 1997

Hobbies

To keep fit, Jean-François enjoys playing tennis and cycling in the summertime. Each year he avidly follows the developments in the Tour de France.

To relax he listens to his collection of pop-rock-electro music.
