

Jean-Luc Geraerts

Experience

Jean-Luc joined the team in September 2008, having previously worked during five years as an auditor in an international audit firm, and subsequently eight years for the Luxembourg subsidiary of a European bank, where he was in charge of supervising the administrative department (accountancy, clients' files, etc) and developing an internal control system for both the front and back offices. In 2002 he started a new professional life as client advisor in the private banking sector for very high net worth customers.

Jean-Luc is in charge of the financial and related administrative aspects of the firm. He also performs financial analysis in view of strategic development.

Jean-Luc is particularly interested by medium-sized companies with high potential and therefore enjoys his role in such a dynamic law firm.

Education

Advanced degree in Accountancy & Marketing in high school (Belgium), 1988

Hobbies

Jean-Luc enjoys running in the open air all over the year and shopping with all the family members.
