

Etienne Hein

Experience

Etienne joined the team in 2008, having previously worked in a notary's office in France, and made several internships in law firms.

At MNKS Etienne is involved in legal research and drafting legal documentation in the context of corporate structuring projects. He is also in charge of carrying out legal formalities with the Luxembourg Trade and Companies Register, and of liaising with the notaries and other Luxembourg authorities.

He appreciates being a part of a dynamic and experienced team, learning continually from his colleagues. He finds participating to projects with international exposure on a daily basis very fulfilling.

Education

Postgraduate in European Union Law (master II), University of Strasbourg III, 2006

Private law degree (master I), University of Stockholm, 2005

Business law degree (master I), University of Strasbourg III, 2004

Hobbies

Etienne enjoys travelling across Europe each time he can, with a particular preference for the Nordic Countries, where he spent a year.

He practices basket-ball on a regular basis, and likes jogging too.

He likes fishing during sunny Sundays with his father on the arms of the Rhin in Alsace, the region he comes from.

He appreciates especially late 70's punk-rock music, Quentin Tarantino and Guy Ritchie's movies.
