

Renaud Le Squeren

Experience

Renaud joined the team in 2008, having a previous 5 years experience in a local law firm which mainly provided private wealth management assistance and where he specialized in corporate law and civil and commercial litigation. He has gained a sound legal and practical knowledge of the day-to-day functioning of Luxembourg companies.

Renaud also teaches corporate law in the Luxembourg Lifelong Learning Center since 2003.

In addition, he has been an external counsel of the Luxembourg Data Protection Commission during two years.

At MNKS, Renaud is mainly involved in corporate structuring projects for international clients. He also provides assistance with commercial litigation files and data protection.

Renaud enjoys finding clear and efficient solutions that meet the business needs of the clients.
