

MNKS, 1st Luxemburg law firm to recruit on Second Life

In keeping with its innovative approach, MNKS is engaging in the Second Life adventure by partaking in the 1st virtual recruitment fair of Benelux countries on the 29th of May.

The MNKS policy of recruitment is based on the identification of the potential and the abilities of the individual, whatever its ethnic origin, personality, religion or background. This open spirit is moreover reflected clearly in the current composition of the office.

The Second Life Benelux Recruitment Session will give you the opportunity to meet us in a virtual place, but where we would be able to welcome you and discuss with you.

How does it work?

A platform called Luxemburg Business has been developed on Second Life (virtual 3D world). To face the growing demand of its visitors, this platform organizes virtual recruitment exhibitions in which the main companies of the Benelux host stands and where their real recruiters (represented virtually) welcome the candidates. The positions to which these meetings bear fruit will, of course, be very real!
