

Jérémý Muszkatblit

Experience

Jeremy joined the firm in July 2006.

He specializes in investment funds and financial services.

Jeremy assists fund administrators in the choice and shaping of the adequate vehicle, the business model and outsourcing possibilities, the investment policy and the corporate governance of the structure.

He also deals with questions relating to insurance law and banking regulatory issues, either on a day-to-day basis, or for cross-border structuring projects for insurance companies, financial institutions or investment firms.

Jeremy is also involved in capital markets matters (such as market abuse, insider trading and take-over bids).

Education

Postgraduate degree in health law and policies, University of Lille II (France), 2004

Law degree in private law, University of Lille II (France), 2003

Hobbies

Jeremy likes to meet with friends and have a drink.

He enjoys playing games such as pool, video games and role play games.

He also enjoys reading thrillers and comic strips. He has written a scenario of a comic strip and hopes finishing it soon with the drawer.
