

Estelle N'ZOUNGOU

Experience

Estelle joined the firm in April 2008 after having previously worked in a well-established Luxembourg law firm where she was mainly dedicated to company restructuring and real estate investments.

At MNKS, she currently deals with corporate restructuring, mergers and acquisition, joint ventures, investment structures and private equity transactions.

Joining MNKS has given her an opportunity to develop her skills in corporate and financing matters and to improve her expertise, in particular as regards the set-up of acquisition and other investment structures and their financial aspects.

Estelle enjoys providing legal assistance for litigation matters.

Education

Post graduate degree in European and international law, University of Tours (France), 2004

Law degree in European and international law, Catholic University of Leuven (Belgium), 2003

Law degree in European Law, University of Tours (France), 2002

Bar Admission

Admitted to the Luxembourg Bar, 2008

Hobbies

Apart from her strong interest in Italian culture, Estelle enjoys traveling as often as possible. She also enjoys going to the cinema and watching old-fashioned movies.

Estelle seeks to give space to her creativity and develop her talent for personal creations.
