Torsten Schmitt

Experience

Torsten joined the firm having previously worked in the shipping litigation field for a law firm in London. He also trained in the corporate and litigation departments of international law firms in Paris and London and worked for an investment fund company in Luxembourg.

At Noble & Scheidecker, Torsten is involved in group structuring projects and acquisition transactions. He likes the challenges the work presents at different levels (technical and personal skills, multicultural approach required...). He constantly seeks to have a general overview of the files, by dealing with different legal fields (corporate, contracts, torts, etc), which he finds essential to fully understand the client's needs and provide a quality advice.

Education

Second State Examination in Law, Saarbrücken (Germany), 2004

First State Examination in Law, Saarbrücken (Germany), 2002

Law degree in International Law, IDPD, University of Nice, Sophia Antipolis (France), 1999

Bar Admission

Member of the Luxembourg Bar, 2006 and of the Saarbrücken Bar (Germany), 2006

Hobbies

In his spare time, Torsten's pleasure is bundling his energies on his favourite playgrounds sports, music and art.

Torsten plays golf and enjoys sailing, running and stunning mountain bike and road cycling trips.

Music is of utmost importance for his being. He relaxes playing the bass and has a deep affection to travelling, literature and contemporary arts.
