

Thomas Walster

Experience

Thomas joined the team in 2008 having studied both in France and Germany. He previously worked during 6 years in a well-established Luxembourg law firm specialising in litigation, where he acquired an extensive experience in commercial, civil, social and criminal litigation.

Thomas joined the corporate team, where he mainly deals with group restructuring.

Working for MNKS is an opportunity to develop his expertise as legal counsel in the corporate environment, thus complementing his earlier litigation experience. It also allows him to develop his communication skills with people having diverse business and cultural approaches.

Education

Law degree in private law, University of Strasbourg (France), 2000

Bar Admission

Member of the Luxembourg bar, 2002

Hobbies

Thomas is interested in modern and contemporary art (such as Basquiat, Haring and Warhol).

He enjoys skiing and playing squash.

He has also a passion for old cars and motorcycles.
